

GARDEN COURT CHAMBERS

Taimour Lay

YEAR OF CALL: 2011

Taimour practises in immigration, public law, inquests and human rights.

He is public access accredited and welcomes direct enquiries from members of the public seeking advice or representation.

"Taimour's personable style quickly gains the confidence of clients, while his thorough preparation impresses judges."

CLAIR HILDER, DEIGHTON PIERCE GLYNN

"Shows a tremendous commitment to clients who are often the most excluded and marginalised, ensuring they get access to justice."

JACKIE PEIRCE, SOLICITOR

PRO BONO WORK

Taimour was a volunteer on the duty scheme at the Asylum Support Appeals Project and also provides regular pro bono advice to individuals at Haringey Migrant Support Centre, with an emphasis on regularisation of status and EU residence rights. He previously volunteered with the Unity Centre in Glasgow and Bail for Immigration Detainees.

IMMIGRATION: ASYLUM AND HUMAN RIGHTS; INQUESTS

Taimour's immigration work covers the full range of tribunal appeals including asylum and Article 8 ECHR (private and family life). He is also regularly instructed in judicial reviews in both the High Court and the Upper Tribunal for urgent challenges to removal and unlawful detention. He assists individuals to regularise their status if they have overstayed while also specialising in exclusions, allegations of deception, PBS challenges and visit visa refusals. Clients often need a full review of their immigration history in order to identify a new path forward. Taimour helps with fresh claim representations and appeal grounds on a public access basis if your hearing has not gone the way you wanted.
