CRIMINAL DEFENCE

Hugh is an experienced senior junior. He trained as a solicitor and was one of the first to obtain Higher Rights in 1999.

He has practised solely as a Higher Courts Advocate for over 20 years. He has led in numerous cases, including murder and terrorism trials. He has also frequently juniorled in such cases.

He has experience in all areas of serious criminal defence work, including fraud, sexual offences, drugs supply offences, firearms offences, and appeals.

He is an excellent jury advocate who is able to get the best from his lay clients, and to think creatively when confronted by evidentially difficult cases.
