CRIMINAL DEFENCE

Alex is a highly experienced criminal defence practitioner and is widely recognised as a leading junior having been instructed in many high-profile trials and appeals in recent years.

He is known for his thorough preparation and meticulous attention to detail. He is strong on legal submissions and displays flair in presenting a case before a jury. Alex is often instructed to represent vulnerable defendants, including those with learning disabilities and mental health problems, and young persons charged with grave crimes

Recent highlights include being instructed to act in high-profile terrorism trials involving: S indicted for directing terrorism, terrorist training, and engaging in preparatory acts of terrorism concerning a UK Plot; and MT alleged to have assisted her husband in engaging in act of terrorism concerning a plot to carry out a murderous knife attack in the UK. Alex has been instructed to act in three multi-handed murder trials to be tried at the Central Criminal Court; and is instructed as Lead Counsel in Operation Fort, an investigation concerning over 70 complainants of human trafficking for the purpose of labour exploitation.
