

Navita Atreya

YEAR OF CALL: 1994

Described in Chambers and Partners as an "expert in asylum, immigration, human rights and European law," Navita Atreya is known by solicitors within the field to be an experienced and specialist advocate in asylum and immigration law and "user friendly" barrister to work with. She is also described as "a very strong advocate in the tribunal. If you get bogged down, she is very good at spotting straight away the points to be made and what needs to be done."

IMMIGRATION: ASYLUM AND HUMAN RIGHTS

Navita is a specialist in asylum, immigration and human rights law. She has appeared extensively before Immigration Judges both at first instance and appeal in asylum, human rights and Immigration cases as well as Judicial Review cases. She has dealt with numerous entry clearance appeals before Immigration Judges and has an interest in business immigration and European law.

She is known to be approachable, with a hands-on approach to casework and works closely with solicitors advising on evidence at an early stage of an appeal. This approach leads to a better service to clients and solicitors and good success in the litigation process. She is able to explain complex points of law in a simple way both to clients and tribunals, a critical skill doing specialist tribunal work.

MEDIATION

Navita is a qualified mediator. Further details can be found on the Garden Court Chambers Mediation website.
